Website colours

These colours, represent the feel of the website, that I'm going for. giving a feeling of Growth with the green pallet and a new beginning with the orange feel. these colours are mostly used with most natural hair products and some hair site use these colours, i also feel that they give a sense of balance within the site. just as the same with hair , our hair has some sense of balance within it.

Blog post Colours

These colours here I'm planning on using them within the blog posts, ie with the border around the content as well as the image boarder and title of the posts. here I want the reader to fee the same feeling as when they first land on the page. the background colour is going to the Cream Can keeping it in the theme of the site.

	Cream Can	HEX	#F4CF7C	RGB	244, 207, 124
	Anakiwa	HEX	#92EDFF	RGB	146, 237, 255
	Heliotrope	HEX	#E192FF	RGB	225, 146, 255
